

Tax Lawyer Position
(6+ years)

For over 30 years, Wilson Vukelich LLP has been a leader in business and tax law. Our lawyers are respected counsel in their areas of practice and are frequently asked to speak at seminars and conferences. Lawyers come to our firm looking for a place where they can control and grow their practice, with support. We are a group of entrepreneurial lawyers, who have established a more collegial and forward-looking firm.

Take the next step in your career and join Wilson Vukelich LLP as lawyer in our Tax Group. From estate planning to post-mortem planning, from start up to exit, we work pro-actively with our clients to design and implement custom solutions. We represent clients in audits, objections and court proceedings against CRA and provincial or international tax authorities. We have a reputation for innovative solutions to tax and business problems. As a growing full-service firm, we offer the opportunity to grow your practice within the support of a strong legal team.

The successful candidate will have:

- 6+ years of advising on tax planning and transaction matters for owner/manager clients including complex reorganizations;
- self-driven, detail oriented and hard-working lawyer with broad practice experience;
- completion of the CPA Canada In-Depth Tax Course (Parts 1, 2 and 3) is an asset;
- a developing practice or a substantial practice; and
- strong client service and client development skills, as well as an entrepreneurial spirit.

If you are ready to take your next step and join our growing team, please reply in confidence with a cover letter and detailed résumé to:
